

2 Corinthians Ch.3- SUFFICIENCY

Having a sufficiency means being content - satisfied.

The Greek word carries a very wide meaning embracing contentment to competence.

Read Genesis ch.33. Esau "had plenty" but Jacob had "all I need". Hold that thought!

Letters that kill

Mere words can have negative power.

This chapter emphasises that we must be people of God's Spirit. We need to receive the Holy Spirit so that our words bring life and faith into others.

Sufficient

We need God's Holy Spirit to calm the self-life and promote the things of truth and love.

New Covenant

The Old Covenant given through Moses had many conditions. Even at its inauguration its glory was fading away. The glory of the New Covenant is all of grace and will never fade.

Moses and fading glory

Do not dismiss the beauty of the Law

Only one thing is more glorious - God's Grace in Jesus Christ

Liberty

We experience what this liberty means when we walk in the Spirit and are led by Him.

Transformation

If our lives are focused on the Lord Jesus Christ, then we will see that our lives are being transformed, little by little, into His likeness. This is the main purpose of the Holy Spirit,
