

Frequently Asked Questions about coming along to our Youth Group

Can I come to Youth Group if I'm not a Christian?

Absolutely! Our Youth group is open to everyone. We have a big focus on friendship, and support... you'll find us a friendly bunch! It's a great opportunity to explore who God is and why Jesus is so amazing. Bring all your questions! ... we might not have all the answers, but we can explore them together.

What do you do at Youth Group?

At youth group, we create a welcoming space where friendships flourish and everyone feels at home. We start off by chatting and catching up, sharing our week and supporting one another.

We also have a lot of fun playing games that encourage teamwork and laughter. A big part of our time together involves exploring the Bible, where we dive into discussions about the stories and messages, helping us grow in understanding and faith.

Overall, it's a mix of fun, connection, and learning that brings us all closer together! It's a vibe!

Why should I come to youth Group?

Joining a Christian youth group can be a rewarding experience, even if you're not a Christian yet. It offers a chance to build some meaningful friendships with other young people.

You'll have the opportunity to engage in fun activities, play games, and participate in discussions that encourage personal growth and understanding.

Exploring the Bible together always provides new perspectives on life's questions and challenges. Whether you're seeking connection, fun, or an adventure, our Youth Group is the place for you.

Is youth Group for me?

Youth group could be a great fit for you if you're looking to make new friends, have fun, and explore new ideas. It's a great place where you can connect with others, share experiences, and participate in activities that interest you. Even if you're unsure about the faith- we welcome you.

If you're curious and open to new experiences, it's well worth checking out!